

Contribution ID: 10

Type: not specified

The cosmology of changing 'constants'

Monday, 14 November 2022 15:00 (15 minutes)

This talk presents a brief overview of the cosmological implications of evolving the cosmological and gravitational 'constants' with time. We will show that such considerations might alleviate the so-called cosmological constant and coincidence problems and open potential avenues for the resolution of the dark energy dilemma.

Primary author: ABEBE, Amare (North-West University)

Presenter: ABEBE, Amare (North-West University)

Session Classification: Partner

Track Classification: Partner