

Contribution ID: 277

Type: Presentation

One parameter scaling for the massive Dirac equation with scalar disorder.

A massive two dimensional Dirac particle in a random electrostatic potential is considered. For a ribbon geometry (width \ll length), the Lyapunov exponent is calculated as a function of ribbon width, for several energies and disorder strengths. Intriguingly, an attempt to demonstrate one parameter scaling is only partially successful.

Primary author: Dr SNYMAN, Izak (NITheP)

Presenter: Dr SNYMAN, Izak (NITheP)

Track Classification: Track G - Theoretical and Computational Physics