

Contribution ID: 137

Type: Presentation

Biophysics and its promising contribution to South African Physics

We present a very brief introduction to biophysics – the rapidly developing field that explores physical processes in biological systems – and emphasise the great variety of spectroscopic techniques and applications. The promising role that biophysics can and should play in the context of South African Physics is briefly described.

Primary author: Mr KRÜGER, Tjaart (VU University Amsterdam)

Presenter: Mr KRÜGER, Tjaart (VU University Amsterdam)

Track Classification: Track C - Lasers, Optics and Spectroscopy