

Contribution ID: 206

Type: Presentation

Are BSc Extended Programmes necessary in South Africa?

A comparison of the BSc extended and mainstream programmes in Physics at the University of the Witwatersrand are reviewed in order to facilitate possible processes to assist the new cohort of Outcome Based Education learners who generally lack the necessary mathematical and conceptual skills required for university.

Primary author: Dr NAIDOO, Deena (School of Physics, University of the Witwatersrand)

Co-authors: Ms MATLOU, Daisy (Science and Teaching Learning Centre, University of the Witwatersrand); Mr CLERK, Douglas (School of Physics, University of the Witwatersrand)

Presenter: Dr NAIDOO, Deena (School of Physics, University of the Witwatersrand)

Track Classification: Track E - Physics Education