

Contribution ID: 63

Type: Presentation

Amplitude screening in solid-state laser resonators

The oscillating mode in laser resonators is dual-directional between the mirrors. Theory describing the field distributions of the beam are compared and supplemented experimentally. The superposition of two Laguerre-Gaussian modes of opposite azimuthal order allows cylindrical “petal” modes to occur. These modes are achieved experimentally and compared to numerical simulations.

Primary author: Mr NAIDOO, Darryl (Council for Scientific and Industrial Research)

Co-authors: Prof. FORBES, Andrew (Council for Scientific and Industrial Research); Prof. AÏT AMEUR, Kamel (CIMAP—ENSICAEN); Mr BRUNEL, Marc (CORIA UMR 6614, Université de Rouen)

Presenter: Mr NAIDOO, Darryl (Council for Scientific and Industrial Research)

Track Classification: Track C - Lasers, Optics and Spectroscopy